MISSOULA--

Twenty-six outstanding University of Montana law students and four local attorneys were honored at the annual Barristers' Awards Banquet Saturday, April 23, at the Club Chateau, east of Missoula.

Robert E. Sullivan, dean of the UM law school, said the banquet is held to recognize scholastic excellence and overall performance qualities by UM law students.

Frank Morrison, Larry E. Riley and Klaus Sitte, all of Missoula, and Gail H. Goheen, Hamilton, were the local attorneys presented with Outstanding Service Awards. The attorneys were honored for special service by the Clinical Training Committee of the UM Student Bar Association.

Recipients of student awards were:

--Arthur W. Graham, Townsend, was selected to receive the Phi Delta Phi Award as the most outstanding student in the UM School of Law.

--Randall J. McDonald, Helena, Wall Street Journal Award for receiving the highest grade in study of corporations.

--Richard A. Brekke, Scobey, received the Prentice-Hall Tax Award as the graduating senior receiving the highest grade in federal tax courses.

--Diane L. Rotering, Helena, received the John P. Acher Award for outstanding student achievement. Rotering also received an American Judicature Society membership, awarded to outstanding members of the graduating class.

--Carolyn S. Ostby, Wolf Point, received the Scribes Award, as an outstanding member on the 1976-77 law review staff. She also received an American Judicature Society membership.

--Ricahrd L. Parish, Livingston, received the Edward A. Cremer III Environmental Law Award for the law student writing the best research paper dealing with environmental law. An American Judicature Society membership was also presented to Parish.

Others receiving American Judicature Society memberships were Richard P. DeJana, Great Falls, Jeffrey V. Essman, Billings, Mary M. Krinsky, Hamilton, Bradley J. Luck, Helena, Stephen D. Roberts, Victor, William A. Rossbach, Missoula, Nicholas C. Spika, Denton, and Mary B. Troland, Missoula.

Roberts and Rossbach also received the Order of Barristers, an award providing membership in the National Honorary Society for Moot Court participants for outstanding achievement in appellate advocacy. Randall L. Bishop, Missoula, James C. Kilbourne, Billings, Michael J. Sherwood, Missoula, and Christian D. Tweeten, Havre, also received Order of Barristers Awards as Moot Court participants.

Students who received Student Bar Association Outstanding Service Awards Were: First year: Leslie Taylor, Helena; Second year: Dan Kemmis, Missoula, Terry Spear, Missoula, and Carol Dulaney, Missoula; Third year: Betsy Scanlin, Red Lodge, Brad Luck, Missoula, Jim Kilbourne, Billings, and Michael Sherwood, Missoula.
